Mat Madness/Ground Only Tournament Rules

For this division both players will perform a standing bow and then kneel on either 1 or both of their knees. Standing up is only allowed if you are in the process of actively trying to pass guard. Points will be assessed using the Freestyle Judo scoring system for groundwork.

Below is a brief description:

Guard Pass – 1 point

Guard Sweep – 1 point

Turnover/Breakdown – 1 point

Pins – All Judo pins will be recognized and awarded points as follows:

5 seconds – 1 point

10 seconds – 2 points

20 seconds – 4 points

After 20 seconds the player will be verbally instructed to go for a submission. If he does not achieve a submission in approximately 10-15 seconds, then the players will be stopped and re-started in the kneeling position again.

Submissions allowed – Ages 13 & 14 may perform chokes. No armbars.

Ages 15 & up may perform chokes or elbow locks.

If a player submits then the match is over and the other player is awarded the win.

No points are awarded for taking the back.

Ankle, leg, knee, and wrist locks are not allowed.

Neck cranks are not allowed.

Guillotines are allowed but must be clean (not across the face) and no lifting or arching of the back is allowed.

Determination of Rank/Division

If the player does not have Judo rank then we will use the following guidelines:

0 to 2 years of training in any grappling style – Competes as a Novice

2 or more years of training in any grappling style – Competes as Advanced.

Novice players may choose to compete as both Novice and Advanced if they wish by paying for a second division
